THE MARKETS.

The Dishonored West Shore Shares in Active Demand.

A General Weakness Observable in a Majority of Stocks, Precial Disputer.

New York, Feb. 7.—The market opened weaker to-day and declined for the first hour, except in the coal stocks, which were very strong under room manipulation. The de-cline averaged about 4 per cent, from the opening. There was a rally between 11 and 12, but the market soon fell off. About 12:30 a sharp decline in Central Pacific sent the market down again, but the lowest prices were in the first hour. Gould stocks quiet. Western Union fluctuating within & all day.

Western Union fluctuating within i all day. Most trading was in Northwestern, St. Paul, Oregon Transcontinental, Union Pacific, Reading, and Delaware and Lackawanna.

The horrowing demand is active. The market closed dull and stronger.

The cause of the sudden reaction in the market late yesterday afternoon is attributed to large sales by the traders, who bid up the market earlier in the day. Mr. Gould further says that the southwestern roads have more market earlier in the day. Mr. Gould further says that the southwestern roads have more business than they can do, and he firmly believes, so he avers, that the Texas stock would double up in price.

Mr. Vanderbiltdenies the story that he has been buying Delaware and Lackawanns to control the property. He says there will be no trouble among poel lines, and that Cable, of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the says of the Rock Island.

of the Rock Island, is the one making all the trouble among the gaugers.

Principal sellers of Central Pacific are the room traders, and it appears the bears scooped the stop orders. The rumor is that the road did not earn its February dividend. Sustaining orders are now in the stock.

Union Pacific deliveries to-day are better than for the past three months, and brokers

Union Pacific deliveries to-day are better than for the past three months, and brokers say one of the big pools has realized.

The buying of West Shores puzzles the brokers, and it is said, on excellent authority, that some of insiders who sold out about sixty have been buying for two days.

At the Central Pacific office no cause can be assigned for decline in the stock. The net earnings for the past month were a trifle less than the previous year, but the mileage operated and the interest charges will be less. The dividends paid have been earned.

There are large buying orders in the stock board in Lake Shore at par, and all stock at that figure is snapped up.

The advance in sterling exchange is caused by serreity of commercial bills and the ad-

by scarcity of commercial bills and the adance in the bank of England rate in London to-day.

It is believed in stock circles that Vander bilt will endeavor to out Cable, president of the Rock Island road, at the next election, and Vanderbilt is trying to get proxies. The St. Paul and Northwestern roads are anxious to have the Vanderbilt party get control of the Rock Island road.

the Rock Island road.

Sales of stocks to-day aggregated 315,987 shares, including the following: Central Pacific, 13,400; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 56,391; Erie, 4,690; Kansas and Texas, 4,900; Lake Shore, 19,400; Louisville and Nashville, 5,900; Missouri Pacific, 10,250; Northwestern, 9,400; New York Central, 5,865, Reading, 37,500; St. Paul, 33,860; Texas Pacific, 4,650; Union Pacific, 25,300; Western Union, 17,181; Northern Pacific preferred, 13,140; Oregon Transcontinental, 21,770.

STOCKS. The following are the opening, highest, lowest, and closing prices of the principal stocks for the day, as corrected by special wire reports received by Bateman & Co., bankers, No. 1411 F street northwest:

THE SQUATTER'S FOOL,

And His Vain Effort to Work Up a Trade for a Lost Horse. Arkaneas Traveler.

"I am looking for a stray horse," said a man stopping at the house of an Arkansawyer and addressing a native who came out and leaned on the low fence.

'What sorter horse? "Sorrel, with a white star in his forehead."
"How long's he been gone?"
"About a day and a half." "Good work nag?"

"First rate." "Wanter swop him fur a better one?" "No, I believe not."
"White star in his forchead, yer say?"

"Yes."
"An' yer don't wanter swop him?"
"No, I believe not." "Certain ho's a good work nag?"
"Of course I am."

'An' yer don't wanter swop him for a better Here, my friend, I haven't time to talk such nonsense. I want to know if you have seen anything of the kind of horse I de-"Why didn't you say so?"

"Yer didn't. Said that's the kind o' hoss yer was lookin' fur, but yer didn't ax ef I'd seed him."

"I told you no."
"Eut that was before you axed of I'd seed The searcher after information looked at the squatter with a hard stare, but the squatter, undaunted, leaned on the fence, while tobacco juice showed a disposition to trick le from the corners of his mouth. "I thought that I had seen the biggest fool in the country, but you take the lead," said the inquirer, with a deliberation that left no room for mistake. "I thought that my wife's father was the biggest fool in the universe, but you are the captain. "Wall, now, here, stranger, of you're out lookin' fur fools, jas git down an wait till my-son-in-law comes from the still house. my-son-in-law comes from the still house. Taikin' bout fools, mister, w'y you're way behind the latest diskiveries. Tell yer what that son-in-law o' mine done. We was killin' logs the other day an' the fust thing I knowed he had scalded hisself an' hung hisself on the pole; shore's yer bo'n he did. Tell yer norther thing he done: Come from meetin' t'other night an' put the mule in the house an' went out an' stood all night in the lot. Stranger, don't talk 'bout fools in this neighborhood lessen yer wanter git floored. Wy, sah, a feller insulted my son-in-law t'other day, an' he kicked hisself 'cross the road." heed."

"Good work nag?"

"As good as I ever saw, and..."

"Don't want to trade him for a better one, do you?" and the squatter dodged just in time to avoid a blow which the stranger leveled at him. So far as the Arkansaw man is concerned, the sorrel horse with a white star in his forchead; the good work nag which the stranger did not care to swap for a better one, is still at large.

A CAPTAIN SAVED.

How a Member of Her Majesty's Service Escaped Desiruction-Ilis Graphic Ac-

Hamilton (Ont.) Spectator. Some little commotion was occasioned several months ago regarding the experience of a gentleman well known in this city, and at the time the matter was subject of general conversation. In order to ascertain all the facts bearing upon the matter a representative of this paper was dispatched yesterday to interview the gentleman in question with the following result:

Capt. W. H. Nicholls, formerly in her maj-

Capt. W. H. Nicholls, formerly in her majesty's service, is a man well advanced in years, who has evidently seen much of the world. Endowed by nature with a strong constitution, he was enabled to endure hardships under which many men would have succumbed. Through all privation and exposure he preserved his constitution unitapaired. A number of years ago, however, he began to feel a strange undermining of his life. He noticed that he had less energy than formerly that the strength and reserved that the second of the strength and the second of life. He noticed that he had less energy than formerly, that his appetite was uncertain and changing, that he was unaccountably weary at certain times and correspondingly energetic at others; that his head pained him, first in front and then at the base of the brain, and that his heart was unusually irregular in its action. All these troubles heattributed to some passing disorder, and gave them little attention, but they seemed to increase in violence continually. To the writer he said:

"I never for a moment thought these things amounted to anything serious and I gave them little, if any, thought; but I felt myself growing weaker all the while and could in neway account for it."

way account for it."
"Did you take no steps to check these

way account for it."

"Did you take no steps to check these symptoms?"

"Very little, if sny. I thought they were only temperary in their nature and would soon pass away. But they did not pass away and kept increasing. Finally, one day, after more than a year had passed, I noticed that my feet and ableles were beginning to swell, and that my face under the eyes appeared puffy. This indication increased until my body began to fill with water, and finally swelled to enormous proportions. I was afflicted with acute rheumatic pains and was fearful at times that it would attack my heart. I consulted one of our most prominent physicians and he gave me no hope of ever recovering. He said that I might live several months, but my condition was such that neither myself nor any of my family had the slightest hope of my recovery. In this condition a number of months passed by, during which time I had to sit constantly in an easy chair, not being able to lie down, lest I should choke to death. The slight pains I had at first experienced increased to most terrible agonies. My thirst was intense, and a good portion of the time I was wholly unconscious. When I did recover my senses I suffered so severely that my cries could be heard for nearly a mile. No one can have any idea of the agony I endured. I was unable to eat or even swallow fluids. My strength entirely deserted me, and I was so exhausted that I prayed day and night for death. The dectors could not relieve me, and I was left in a condition to die, and that, toe, of Bright's disease of the kidneys in its most terrible form. I think I should have died had I not learned of a gentleman who had suffered very much as I had, and I resolved to pursue the same course of treatment which entirely cured him. I accordingly began and at once falt a change for the hade and at once falt a change for the hade and at once falt a change for the hade and at once falt a change for the hade and at once falt a change for the hade and at once falt a change for the hade and at once falt a ch suffered very much as I had, and I resolved to pursue the same course of treatment which entirely cured him. I accordingly began and at once feit a change for the better going on in my system. In the course of a week the swelling had gone from my abdomen and diminished all over my body, and I feit like another man. I continued the treatment, and am happy to say that I was entirely cured through the wonderful, almost miraculous, power of Warner's Safe Cure, which I consider the most valuable discovery of modern times."

consider the most valuable discovery of modern times."

"And you feel apparently well now?"

"Yes, indeed. I am in good health, est heartily, and both the doctors and my friends are greatly surprised and gratified at my restoration, after I was virtually in the grave. My daughter, who has been terribly troubled with a pain in her back, caused by kidney trouble, has also been cured by means of this same great remedey, and my family and myself have constituted ourselves a kind of missionary society for supplying the poor of our neighborhood with the remedy which has been so invaluable to us."

As the writer was returning home he reflected upon the statements of the noble old man with whom he had conversed, and was impressed not only with the truth of his assertions, but also with the sincerity of all his acts. And he could not but wish that the thousands who are suffering with minor troubles.

thousands who are suffering with minor troubles which become so serious unless taken in time might know of Capt. Nicholl's experience and the manner in which he was saved. And that is the cause of this article.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

TRISMUS NASCENTIUM: OR, THE LOCKJAW OF INFANTS. By J. F. HARTIGAN, M. D.

This monograph by Dr. Hartigan, which has been republished in pamphlet form from the American Journal of the Medical Sciences of January, is a valuable contribution to medical literature. Dr. Hartigan gives the histor of this usually-believed fatal disease, its cause, prevention, and cure, and supplements this by a record of cases and post mortem examinations, with a statistical table of 229 deaths. In his theory of the cause and method of treatment, Dr. Hartigan coincides with the late Dr. J. Marion Sims who took so great an interest in this subject that, on his last visit to this city, just prior to his death, he called upon Dr. Hartigan and complimented him upon the work he had undertaken, assuring him that, in his opinion, his reasoning was sound, and that the time would come when this so long dreaded disease would yield to intelligent and enlightened treatment. Dr. Hartigan has certainly given the faculty food for thought and investigation, and his little book should be carefully read by every physician in the country.

LITERARY NOTES. Allan Pinkerton, the famous detective, is busily engaged in finishing his strikingly interesting book, "Thirty Years a Detective," soon to be published by G. W. Carleton & Co. This work will contain a resume of all the criminal practices known at the present time. It will fully explain the modus operands of the most noted professional and expert bank burglars, counterfeiters, forgers, &c., with illustrations of their ingeniously con structed tools and implements, many of which have been captured by Maj. Pinkorton while in the possession of the men who were skilled in their use. Every invention known to the crimi-nal will be made public in this work, and many valuable secrets hitherto unknown will be divulged. The modes of the picknockets, river thieves, palace car robburs, and bank burglars are also exposed and explained.

January Choice Literature.—The January issue of this excellent magazine, which begins a new volume, contains an interesting array of contents, including "The New Hero," by Theodore Watts, an entertaining study of the way poets and artists treat child-life; "Luther in Politics," by Karl Riind; "Alexander Von Humboldt," a biographical and critical study by the president of the University of Berlin; "The lithics of Arioato," a delightful and scholarly study, by E. M. Clerk, "Evolutionary scholarly study, by E. M. Clerk, "Evolutionary Ethics and Christianity," by Goldwin Smith, "Au-cient International Law," by H. Brougham Leech; "Outcast Russia," a powerful article, by the imprisoned Prince Krapotkine: "Reminiscences of Thorwalden," "Evolution and Mind," and "Science Notes," by W. M. Williams, John B. Alden, publisher, 18 Vescy street, New York.

The first installment of a new novel, by Mrs Cashel Hoey, entitled "The Lover's Creed," published in the February number of the Domestic Monthly. The title is taken from the line by Dr. Holmes: "One, and one only, is the lover's creed. Mrs. Cashel Hosy occupies a prominent place among the most popular English novelists, a posi-tion won by her powerful stories, "The Question of Cain" and "A Golden Sorrow." As it is now four or tive years since she has published any thing, her new story will be eagerly welcomed It will run for some months as a serial in the Domestic Monthly, illustrated by charming drawings by D. Macnan, ongraved by Swain of London The Dumrette Month p in published by Blake & Co.,

SS Broadway, New York.
An anecdotal paper on Gustave Courbet, the eccentric French artist and communist, will be contributed to the February Confucy by Titus Munson Coan. Among the illustrations will be a full - onge may of Courbet's famous painting, "The page wow of Courbet's famous painting, "The Muscles," which was conspicuous among the Courbet p littings at the recent Barthold! Lean exhibition; and a picture of the score in the Place Veadome, when Courbet and his men were pulling down the Vondome column.

Happer's Magazian will shortly begin a series of illustrations of the great works of the old masters, engraved abroad by the well-known American wood engraver, Mr. W. B. Closson, who went to Europe to undertake the work in bohalf of Messrs. Europe to undertake the work in behalf of Messra. Harper & Brothers. The first, an exquisite en-graving after Murillo, will appear, printed separately upon plate paper, in the March number of Analysis by Dr. A. Voeleker, F. R. S., Consulting Chemist Royal Agricultural Society, England, shows only a trace of nitrates in Blackwell's Buil Durham Tobacco. The soil of the Golden Bett of North Carolina, in which this tobacco is grown, don't supply nitratesto the leaf. That is the secret of its delicious midness. Nothing so pure and luxurious for smoking. Don't forget the brand. None genuine without the trade-mark of the Buil. All dealers have it.
